Manuscript Details:

- Title: _____
- Authors: _____

1. Copyright Transfer

We, the authors of the manuscript mentioned above, confirm that the manuscript is an original work and has not been published in any other journal or publication, nor has it been simultaneously submitted to any other publisher. We hereby transfer the global copyright of the manuscript (including but not limited to the rights to reproduce, publish, distribute, disseminate, display, and modify) to Future-JCERM. This transfer becomes effective upon the manuscript’s acceptance for publication.

2. Right of Attribution

The journal reserves the right to recognize and list all authors' names upon publication and across all versions and platforms of the journal, in accordance with its attribution and authorship policies.

3. Self-Archiving Rights

Authors are permitted to upload the final version of the article to personal or institutional repositories or other non-commercial platforms for academic sharing and research purposes. Self-archiving may occur no earlier than [specific embargo period, e.g., 12 months] after publication by the journal, provided appropriate attribution to the original publication in Future-JCERM is maintained.

4. Third-Party Permission

Permission from the journal must be obtained in writing for any third-party use of the manuscript’s content (including figures, tables, or other materials) in non-journal publications or external dissemination.

5. No Plagiarism Statement

The authors affirm that the manuscript is an original work, free from plagiarized content, and does not infringe upon any copyrights, trademarks, patents, or intellectual property rights of third parties. All referenced materials and sources have been properly acknowledged and cited.

6. Liability Statement

The authors accept full legal responsibility for the manuscript's content, ensuring it does not infringe upon the rights of others. The authors agree to indemnify and hold the journal and the publisher harmless from any claims or disputes related to intellectual property violations or other legal issues arising from the manuscript.

7. Right of Modification

The journal retains the right to make necessary editorial modifications to the manuscript to ensure alignment with its formatting and style guidelines. These modifications will not compromise the academic integrity or intellectual content of the manuscript.

8. Open Access and Licensing

The journal supports open access under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Licence (CC BY 4.0), enabling global dissemination and proper attribution of the authors' work.

9. Commitment to Circular Economy and Resource Management

The authors recognize the journal's dedication to advancing research and innovation in circular economy and sustainable resource management. By signing this agreement, the authors commit to upholding ethical publishing practices and supporting the journal's mission to promote sustainability.
